Business Safety Seminar – Self Catering Accommodation

This is a specifically designed business safety seminar to help holiday owners meet their legal obligations, ensuring risks to their visitors is minimised giving owners peace of mind and helping ensure holiday agents can be confident in the safety of the accommodation they are advertising.

We have organised some excellent speakers for this half day event who are extremely knowledgeable in their field of expertise.

These include:

classic cottages

Simon Tregoning – Owner of Classic Cottages

Simon used to work for the Bank of England, he joined his family company Classic Cottages, in 1989, then with 250 holiday homes in the West Country, now a portfolio of some 800 properties. Simon lives on The Lizard in West Cornwall with his wife and have two daughters aged 18 and 20. He is a trustee of the National Maritime Museum Cornwall, and have been on the board of the Cornwall and Isles of Scilly Local Enterprise Partnership. Outside work, he is a governor at Mullion school and a member of Gunwalloe Surf Life Saving Club.

Cornish Mutual

Arthur Denton - Cornish Mutual Insurance

Arthur has been involved in claims in some way for the past 20 years. His career began with a law firm and he has since had roles in insurance companies, loss adjusters, the Motor Insurers Bureau, accident management companies and law firms. Arthur has experience dealing with claims on behalf of Housing Associations, Local Authorities, celebrity chefs and motorsport governing bodies. Arthur has a Certificate in Insurance through The Chartered Insurance Institute as well as being a Graduate member of the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives with specialist areas being Employment Law, Contract Law and Tort Law. He is therefore well placed to deal with Claims, in particular Employers Liability and Public Liability Claims.

There will also be speakers from Cornwall Fire and Rescue Service and Business Regulatory Support Services.
