Situated in one of west Cornwall's most beautiful, unspoiled seaside villages, "Kernyk" cottage is a haven within Perranuthnoe's Churchtown, an area of the village with charming granite cottages and the Church of St Piran.

"Kernyk" blends modernity with tradition; an entirely self-contained, newly furnished two bedroom cottage complete with a garden, a modern kitchen (pictured right) and shower room. Walk through the front door into a cosy living room with television, speaker dock and beamed ceiling; beyond is a bright, modern kitchen and dining area, looking onto the long garden. The kitchen contains a ceramic hob, fridge, oven and sink... suitable for cooking up something delicious if you'd rather stay in. French doors in the kitchen open out fully to a patio area, perfect for sitting out on a summer's evening in the peace and quiet of this lovely Cornish village.

Upstairs contains a modern bathroom featuring a large shower, a generous single bedroom and a double bedroom with custom-built sliding door wardrobes. Kernyk sleeps three people.

Just down the hill from "Kernyk" lies an array of local amenities: the Lynfield farm buildings offer a craft centre and gallery, a hairdressers, and The Cabin by Perranuthnoe beach, another favourite café with indoor and outdoor seating. There are picturesque cliff walks to the left and right of the beach: Cudden Point and Prussia Cove (as seen in the 2004 Judi Dench/ Maggie Smith film, Ladies in Lavender) lie to the east, and the historic Boat Cove and Maen Du Point to the west with spectacular views of St Michael's Mount and Mount's Bay, Mousehole, Penzance and Newlyn. In the summer, enjoy weekly "summer teas" outside the lovely church rooms – pick from a wonderful spread of sandwiches, cakes, and hot drinks for a small price, in aid of a good cause! And after exerting yourself on the cliff paths, nip into the historic pub, The Victoria Inn, for a drink and a meal from their highly regarded chef.

If you're looking for a holiday that combines relaxing and exploring south west Cornwall then staying in "Kernyk" is the perfect holiday destination. The cottage offers the opportunity to get away from it all without forsaking those much needed home comforts.

- To take good care of the property and leave it in a clean and tidy condition on departure Kernyk Cottage Holidays reserve the right to make a charge for extra cleaning if the property is not left in a satisfactory condition. Should Kernyk Cottage Holidays be dissatisfied with the condition of the property, they may refuse to take a booking from that guest again.

In addition,

Kernyk Cottage Holidays accept no liability for loss of or damage to the guest's possessions on the owners property or land. Nothing in these conditions excludes or limits the liability of Kernyk Cottage Holidays for death or personal injury caused by Kernyk Cottage Holidays negligence or for any matter which it would be illegal for Kernyk Cottage Holidays to exclude or attempt to exclude their liability.

Breach of Contract – If there is a breach of any of these conditions by the guest or any of their party, Kernyk Cottage Holidays reserve the right to re enter the property and end the holiday and ask the guest and their party to leave. If there is a breach of any of these conditions by Kernyk Cottage Holidays, then the guests have the right to end their holiday and leave.

Complaints – All complaints must be notified to Kernyk Cottage Holidays as soon as reasonably practicable, as Kernyk Cottage Holidays may be required to carry out an on the spot investigation followed by remedial action. Guests have a legal obligation to mitigate their loss. If Kernyk Cottage Holidays are denied the opportunity of investigating the complaint within a reasonable time or denied the opportunity to put matters right during the holiday, then the guest will waive all rights.

Losses or Damages – You should be aware that you have a legal liability to pay for any damages you may cause to the property during your holiday. The owners have insured the property in respect of the usual risks covered by a building and contents policy and, whilst these policies will vary in detail, the major perils should be covered. However, in certain circumstances, if you should cause any loss or damage by negligence, you could become liable and you would probably not be covered by the personal liability section of your own household policy. Equally, the owner's insurance is unlikely to cover your personal possessions. You would therefore be well advised to check on these points with your insurers and you may find that, providing they are given notice, they will extend your normal cover to include your holiday home.

Law – Any dispute will be governed by the non exclusive law and jurisdiction of the English Courts.
